DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-37, drawn to a method of isolating extrachromosomal nucleic acids by: removal of chromosomal nucleic acid; precipitation of extrachromosomal nucleic acid with a chaotropic solution; and recovery of the nucleic acid.

Group II, claim(s) 38-51, drawn to a method of isolating nucleic acids by partial purification with a retaining means (i.e. a gel) followed by precipitation and recovery.

The inventions listed as Groups I-II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature linking Groups I and II is the use of a chaotropic solution to facilitate the precipitation of nucleic acids. However, Little et al. (U.S. Patent 5,075,430, 1991) disclose a method to purify plasmid (extrachromosomal) DNA by contacting the nucleic acid with a chaotropic agent and binding to diatomaceous earth. The nucleic acid/diatomaceous earth complex is then removed from solution (precipitated) and the nucleic acid then eluted from the diatomaceous earth with water or low salt solution (recovered).

Therefore, the technical feature linking the inventions of Groups I and II does not constitute a special technical feature as defined by PCT Rule 13.2, as it does not define a contribution over the prior art.

The special technical feature of Group I is considered to be methods to purify extrachromosomal nucleic acids using a chaotropic solution.

The special technical feature of Group II is considered to be a method of isolating nucleic acids by partial purification with a retaining means followed by treatment with a chaotropic solution.

Art Unit: 1636

Accordingly, Groups I-II are not so linked by the same concept or a corresponding technical feature as to form a single general inventive concept.

A telephone call was made to Stephen Albainy-Jenei on 10/12/04 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Michael D. Burkhardt whose telephone number is (571) 272-2915. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 8AM-5PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Irem Yucel can be reached on (571) 272-0781. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
